In light of COVID-19 (novel coronavirus), the Academy of Oncology Nurse & Patient Navigators (AONN+) is aware of the increased acuity of care that navigators are managing on a daily basis with patients with cancer and their families. The Academy's primary focus is the health and safety of our members and the patient care provided. In response, the 2020 AONN+ Midyear Conference is converting to a virtual experience.

Although times are uncertain, this change is an exciting addition to the capabilities offered through AONN+. All current registrations will be transferred to the new, virtual format, and the agenda will continue to feature high-level faculty, engaging disease state discussions, practical solutions to daily navigation challenges, and accredited content.

If you have booked your hotel room at the Baltimore Marriott Waterfront through the AONN+ room block, you should have received an e-mail notifying you that your room has been canceled. If you did not receive an e-mail, please call the hotel at 410-385-3000 to ensure that your room has been canceled. No charges will be incurred for the cancellation. If you have booked your lodging at a different location, please contact them directly and follow their guidelines regarding canceling reservations. AONN+ is not responsible for any cancellation fees you may incur.

To cancel your air travel reservation, please contact the airline directly and follow their guidelines regarding canceling air travel. AONN+ is not responsible for any cancellation fees you may incur.

As we work through the details, further updates and information will be available via e-mail and posted at www.aonnonline.org. Thank you for your continued support of AONN+ and your patience as we work through the details to provide an exciting virtual experience. We look forward to your participation in our first virtual conference.

All the best,

Sharon Gentry, MSN, RN, HON-ONN-CG, AOCN, CBCN, AONN+ Program Chair

Peg Rummel, RN, MS, OCN, HON-ONN-CG, AONN+ Conference Planning Committee Co-Chair
